The Gospel of John

1. If God came to woe His human creation back to Himself, beginning with Israel, how would He do it?
 - a. Would He do it in great display of overwhelming power and glory, forcing them to submit and believe? (Mat. 12:38 cp. 16:1; Jn. 2:18; 6:30).
 - b. Or would He come lowly and humble as a man making God known to them—one human to another--dispensing grace upon grace and truth, pointing them to the Father, desiring to give them eternal life?
 - c. At His 1st Coming, He came in the latter way calling on people to voluntarily and willingly receive Him in faith unto eternal life. He is not going to force them into submission or overwhelm their will—even the devils believe in this way—until His 2nd Coming.

2. Defining Some Terms in Israel's Prophetic Program:

a. Salvation.

b. World or "cosmos."

c. Love and Christ's death.

d. Eternal Life

e. Sin

f. The "Work" of God

JOHN EMPHASIZES ISRAEL'S NEED OF SPIRITUAL SALVATION

3. What Israel needed to realize is that in God's Prophetic Program, not only did they need to be the physical descendants of Abraham, they needed FIRST to be the spiritual descendant of Abraham, following in His footsteps of faith—everything else comes after that (Gen. 15:6).

a. It is only after justification by faith that God could then work through Abraham: making a Covenant with him (Gen. 15:9ff.), giving sign of circumcision (Gen. 17), giving Isaac (Gen. 21), be a type of God sacrificing His Son (Gen. 22).

--Paul makes a great point of this in Rom. 4.

b. John the Baptist and Jesus fought to remove this Jewish presupposition—they were not just the children of Abraham, they were also the children of fallen Adam (Mat. 3:9; Lk. 3:8; Jn. 8:33-45).

4. Like every Gentile, including Abraham himself, every Israelite is born into the world a part of fallen Adamic humanity--ungodly sinners on enemy status before God—spiritually dead—and need most fundamentally of all is to be rightly related to God unto eternal life.
 - a. Like Abraham, God preaches good news to sinners, including the Israelites (in Christ's earthly ministry it was the Gospel of the Kingdom).
 - b. When they believe, they were saved spiritually, justified before God and His Tribunal forevermore BY FAITH WITHOUT WORKS.
5. It is only AFTER this step of individual faith that God could work through them in His plan and purpose, providing them national physical deliverance, which is what Matthew emphasizes.
